With Ian Arenas, Greg Curtis, Bianca D'Amico, Josh Mannis, and Davida Nemeroff. Curated by Jason Kunke

The Holographic Principle presents a screening of video works not normally screened. These works are usually part of sculpture or installation, or loops that allow the viewer to come and go. For one evening only, the 3-dimensional aspects of these pieces will be condensed into a 2-dimensional screening, changing the usual presentation in an attempt to induce a potentially meditative, altered state of awareness for the viewers.

The screening may be followed by a brief discussion. 420 friendly.
